ANDREW SHORTER,
WILLIE BRADDOCK, JR.,
DEMETRIUS NELMS, and
BRYAN LUCAS

CRIMINAL NO. 3:17CR047
18 U.S.C. § 2
18 U.S.C. § 371
18 U.S.C. § 659

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

COUNT ONE

Conspiracy to Steal, Receive and Possess Goods Stolen from Interstate Shipments (Violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371 (18 U.S.C. § 659))

THE SCHEME

A. Beginning at a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but at least from on or about October 2014 through on or about January 2016, in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, defendants RICHARD SHORTER, FARES MANNI, ANDREW SHORTER, WILLIE BRADDOCK JR., DEMETRIUS NELMS and BRYAN LUCAS did unlawfully, knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire and agree with each other and with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit offenses against the United States, namely: to unlawfully, knowingly and intentionally steal, receive and possess goods and chattels, which were part of interstate shipments of freight, stolen from motortruck trailers, which had an aggregate value in excess of $1,000, knowing the goods and chattels were stolen and with the intent to convert these goods and chattels to their own use, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 659.

GOAL OF THE CONSPIRACY

B. RICHARD SHORTER was the leader of a theft ring that included ANDREW SHORTER, WILLIE BRADDOCK JR., DEMETRIUS NELMS, BRYAN LUCAS, among others (the “Shorter Theft Ring”), that conspired to steal goods and chattels from semi-truck trailers traveling in interstate commerce through the Northern District of Mississippi, and elsewhere, with the goal to sell the stolen goods and chattels to FARES MANNI in an effort to obtain as much money as possible.

MANNER AND MEANS TO ACCOMPLISH THE CONSPIRACY

C. The charged conspiracy was accomplished by the following means, among others, and in the following manner:

1. As part of the conspiracy, the defendants agreed to participate in a scheme to steal motortruck trailers carrying freight in interstate commerce, without the authorization or permission of the owners and with the objective of selling the stolen cargo for profit.

2. As part of the conspiracy, the defendants would and did play different roles, take upon themselves different tasks, and participate in conduct of the conspiracy through various criminal acts as required to promote and protect the operations of the conspiracy.

3. It was further part of the conspiracy that members of the Shorter Theft Ring stole motortruck trailers, primarily from truck stops located in the Northern District of Mississippi, Tennessee, and elsewhere, that contained goods and chattels that were traveling in interstate commerce.

4. It was further part of the conspiracy that once the motortruck trailers were stolen, FARES MANNI instructed members of the Shorter Theft Ring to take the stolen goods and chattels that the motortruck trailers contained to Warehousing Pro, located in Nashville, Tennessee, where the stolen goods and chattels were off loaded and stored.

5. It was further part of the conspiracy that FARES MANNI hired a carrier to pick up the stolen goods and chattels from Warehousing Pro, in Nashville, Tennessee, and deliver the stolen goods and chattels to a business identified as Standard Wholesale, located in Highland Park, Michigan.

6. It was further part of the conspiracy that FARES MANNI paid members of the Shorter Theft Ring for the stolen goods and chattels.
